

To Our Dear Friends:

On November 14, 2018, the Piscataway Domestic Violence Crisis Intervention Team will host our 17th Comedy Night at the Piscataway Radisson Hotel to show our appreciation for the very special people who make it possible for us to support and educate the community regarding domestic violence. On that evening, we will provide fun and laughter, plus food, entertainment, and chances to win prizes in our "Against All Odds" Scholarship Raffle!

Tragically, in the state of New Jersey alone, an act of domestic violence happens every 7.29 minutes. The goals of the Piscataway DVCIT are to break the cycle of abuse through education, crisis management, and by giving a voice to those who have been suffering in silence. This year we have partnered with Brilliant Party Planners, an intrepid, all-women owned and operated event planning and fundraising company who stand behind our efforts 100%. Together we will raise money to support the mission of breaking the cycle of domestic violence.

For over 20 years, our trained and certified volunteers have been first responders to domestic violence emergencies. We provide crisis counseling, as well as establish a cooperative effort between victims and family service providers, local police departments, and neighboring community partners to help victims and their children. We strive to sustain and add to our list of groundbreaking presentations, like the Yellow Dress and Remote Control, which educate children and teens in Piscataway schools about the dynamics of domestic violence, the pitfalls of dating violence, and the skills to recognize and build healthy relationships. Additionally, we award $1000 scholarships to recognized students who have overcome tremendous obstacles and challenges. We hope that one day our programs will lessen the dire need for emergency services in years to come.

With the help of you and your company, we are able to continue to offer support, resources and vital programs to families and schools. Our fundraising efforts begin with YOU purchasing an advertisement in our annual Comedy Night Program! Please review the attached Comedy Night sign up sheet to get details on how you can help our organization. You will see that different ad sizes are available as well as opportunities be a Comedy Night Sponsor by donating goods and services or underwriting one its facets. United we can break the cycle of violence!

You will most definitely receive the recognition you deserve from us in the Comedy Night Ad Journal and on our event website and social media outlets. You will also receive a letter of distinction, suitable for framing and display, thanking you for your support. We will be happy to include you in our press coverage and releases for this event. We invite you to share in our mission and share in our super fun Comedy Night on November 14, 2018. Hope to see you there.

Thank you in advance for your help!
